Preparation Beforehand: CAP staff Michele Jones, Pie Mikell and Jimmy Hinson advised Congo Mission Network (CMN) on hosting details at the CAP building. While the CMN Steering Committee funded the conference, FPC HHI and Sea Island PC made assisting donations. Rev. Charles Heyward/Edisto PC, Alan Rousseau/St Andrews Charleston PC and Rev. Cibele Santos/CAP Moderator advised Charlotte White/FPC HHI about presbytery participation in hosting. Early on, Katherine Nelson of Myers Park Presbyterian Church in Charlotte NC volunteered to cochair hosting with Charlotte White. CMN steering committee members were meanwhile planning the CMN conference program details, chaired by Rev. Bill Reinhold/PCUSA minister and Roberta Spalding/Lafayette Orinda Presby. Church CA. Many church members across the USA and Congo served on the CMN steering committee.

Who we were hosting: The PCUSA supported Congo Mission Network (CMN) conference from March 14 - 16, was attended by over 70 people in person, and up to 150 on zoom from across the USA and in the Congo DRC. Simultaneous translation was provided on zoom. Many in our presbytery joined or helped host. Saturday Lunch: Box lunches, $10 each, ordered from Publix. Katherine Nelson & Bill Gallagher delivered them. Drinks compliments of Summerville & Yeamans Park PCs.

Saturday Clean UP: Penn Grove (Second Pres Charleston) returned with her husband, Tom, and they cleaned the whole upstairs bunk area. All attendees in the sanctuary put up chairs, swept and emptied trash. Many helped clean the fellowship room. Anne Crane/Church of the Covenant Boston stayed last to help Charlotte White clear out the refrigerator. "Many hands make light work!"

Sy Hughes, (seen on right), PCUSA Ministry Engagement & Support Advisor for SE region, provided a large PCUSA table display and spoke to the group about PCUSA engagement opportunities. He encouraged all to support our PCUSA mission coworkers. On the left are the six, who attended the conference: L to R back: Rev. Cheryl Barnes, Inge Sthresley, Christi Boyd. L to R front: Jose LaMont Jones, Larry Sthresley, and Jeff Boyd.

HOSTS

Congo Mission Volunteer co-workers Jonathan and Janet Cameron were hosted during the conference by Marynell Wallace of Peace Presbyterian Church. The Camerons departed on Saturday, March 16 for a brief rest in the USA, before returning to volunteer in Kinshasa.

Conference attendee Rev. James Byens of Rebuilders Ministry in Bunia, Congo DRC was taken to dinner by Rev. Spike Coleman of St Andrews Charleston, on the evening before the conference started.

Congo Mission co-workers Jeff & Christi Boyd were hosted by Mary Mcabee of Westminster PC. Mary hosted them after the conference in their home. Sunday, she took them to worship with Westminster PC, where Rev. Daniel Smoak introduced them to the congregation & also invited them to share with an adult Sunday School class. Mission committee member Dee Bee Wright & her husband took the Boyds to lunch. The Boyds then departed Charleston Sunday afternoon.

Congo Mission co-worker Jose LaMont Jones and conference attendee Rev. Joseph Kazadi of Texas were hosted by Hank and Betsy Martin of First Scots PC, after the conference ended Saturday noon. They took them to the International African American Museum and hosted them in their home. Sunday, they took them to worship at First Scots PC and then took Rev. Kazadi to the airport. Jose stayed with them until Monday.

Monday March 18, Jose Jones met at Wallingford PC with members of the National Black Presbyterian Caucus, arranged by Rev. Charles Heyward. Attending were Rev. Perry Griffin/Aimwell PC, Rev. Charles Heyward/Edisto PC, Rev. Carolyn Heyward/Bethel PC, Rev. Brian Henderson/St James PC, Rev. Alex Porter/Wallingford PC, and Lay Minister Ray Whaley/Zion-Olivet PC. Woody Collins/Helping Hands Organization and Whitewater Valley Presbytery Volunteer mission coworker in Congo also met with them. The group reviewed water projects and education programs in Congo.

NEXT YEAR

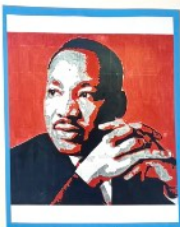

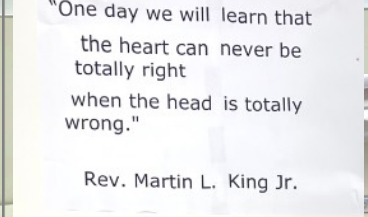

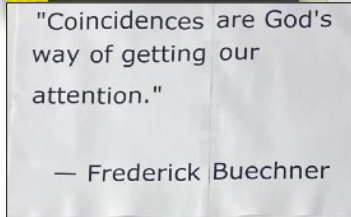

Charles Nash of Brown Presbyterian Church informed Congo Mission Network attendees that the 2025 Congo Mission Network Conference will be hosted in Tuscaloosa, Alabama in fall 2025 by Stillman College, Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, and the Presbytery of Sheppards and Lapsley.
